CONFIDENTIAL

Dear John:

I would like to express my warm thanks for the superb job that was done by members of your staff over the week end of January 6 and 7 to prepare information concerning specific instances of Castro subversion or other interventionist activities in Latin America which could be used as unclassified information to support action with respect to Cuba at the forthcoming meeting of Foreign Ministers. This detailed report will be extremely useful.

I would be grateful if you would mention my appreciation to the individual members of your staff who prepared this report which was sent to the Department of State under General Cabell's letter of January 8.

With warm regards,

Sincerely,

/s/ Dean

Dean Rusk

The Honorable
John A. McCone,
